

Carr's Billington Expands Dealer Territory in Northern England & Southwest Scotland with T H WHITE for Ferris, Spider & Ohashi Brands

T H WHITE Machinery Imports is pleased to announce that Carr's Billington, a trusted supplier of groundcare and agricultural equipment, is expanding its dealer territory to cover Northern England and Southwest Scotland. This strategic expansion enhances access to premium groundcare solutions, including Ferris commercial mowers, Spider remote-controlled slope mowers and Ohashi compact tracked chippers for customers in these regions.

The inclusion of Ferris mowers, known for their innovative suspension technology and superior comfort, will enhance productivity for commercial users tackling demanding terrains. Spider's world-renowned remote-controlled slope mowers provide a safe and efficient solution for maintaining steep and hazardous landscapes. Meanwhile, Ohashi's compact tracked chippers offer powerful, high-performance solutions for forestry, landscaping and local authority applications.

"We are thrilled to expand our dealer territory for these premium groundcare brands," said Amanda Smith, Branch Manager at Carr's Billington, Byers Green, Spennymoor. "At Carr's Billington, we pride ourselves on delivering high-quality products and expert service to our customers. With Ferris, Spider and Ohashi, we can offer even more solutions to meet the diverse needs of professionals working in groundcare, forestry and landscaping across Northern England and Southwest Scotland."

"We are excited to support Carr's Billington in expanding its dealer area for Ferris, Spider and Ohashi brands," said Douglas Jeffrey, Area Sales Manager at T H WHITE Machinery Imports. "Their expertise and strong local presence ensure that more customers will have access to industry-leading groundcare equipment, backed by exceptional service and support."

Carr's Billington's expanded coverage area will provide enhanced sales, service, and support to new and existing customers, reinforcing its mission to deliver top-tier products and customer satisfaction. Customers in Northern England and Scotland can now benefit from Carr's Billington's extensive knowledge and high-quality service for these premium groundcare brands.
